JESUS teaches us to pray

Matthew 6: 9 - 13

Our Father which art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done in earth,
as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts,
as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever.
Amen.

Worship Next Sunday; In preparation for the message next Sunday, please read Numbers 12-14. You will find this helpful background information.

Description of message: This Psalm is credited to Moses. His leadership had its significant ups and downs through which he learned some hard lessons. He experienced God's anger and His grace. This Psalm reflects his experience of God. One thing life's lessons taught him: it's important to number our days ARIGHT! We'll explore what this means.

The Offering will be for Church Ministries and (Clements Centre Society - write cheque to Duncan CRC Church and the cause in the memo line and on the envelope). Clements Centre Society assists children and youth with developmental needs and adults with developmental disabilities in the Cowichan Valley.

January Community Dinner

In a few weeks it will be the last Saturday of the month - and the monthly free dinner we serve to those in need in our community. For the past 15 years or so this has been a wonderful outreach in our community - people of all ages and backgrounds walk through these doors and eat a good hot meal together and socialize in a nice warm place! God has blessed us with all we need to do this - plenty of food and many volunteers! To feed about 200 people we need 15 - 20 volunteers - some to help prepare food and set up tables, some to serve the food, pour drinks, clear tables, do dishes, put tables/chairs away. It's always a blessing to work together! For January 26, we URGENTLY NEED MORE VOLUNTEERS! If you've been thinking of helping out - now's the time! Five of the regular volunteers will be away! Please consider helping! Talk to Anneke or Affie in the next week if you can help or have questions! Thank you!
