From the Deacons

Now that the donation receipts have been sent out by the Deacons, it has been brought out at the Council Meeting that at present our operating funds are extremely low. May we consider all that has been given to date and to prayerfully consider what you can contribute in the last quarter for us as church to meet our obligations in support of all church ministries.

Thank you, the Deacons

Church Family

Last Saturday we celebrated our 40th wedding anniversary with our family over Zoom, sharing pizza, wine, dessert and memories! We are so thankful to God for giving us 40 years of marriage. We also want to Thank you, Congregation, for your friendship, prayers, words of encouragement, visits, and meals over the years. God is so good and it's wonderful to belong to a family of believers where we are brothers and sisters in Jesus Christ. Also thanks to our children for their encouragement, concern and support as well, even though they don't all live here. Thanks again. Gerald & Anneke

Henry Jonker has been diagnosed with an aggressive nonhodgkins lymphoma requiring a regimen of chemotherapy which will last at least 6 months. In my understanding, Henry has begun Chemo treatment. Let us pray that Henry may be healed whether miraculously or through the medical process.
