Worship Services

Sunday, April 27:

The video this week, "Easter - Accused for Me", is from Matthew 27:11-31.

"Right Now Media":

The resurrection is the most important moment in history, but it is more than an event we remember on Easter Sunday. Join pastor J.D. Greear as he takes a deeper look at Jesus's life, death, and resurrection in the Gospel of Matthew, revealing the ways we should see ourselves in Jesus's story. Jesus died for us so that he could be alive in us today. Easter changes everything.

The Offering is for Church Ministries.

Next Sunday, May 4:

Next Sunday is GEMS Sunday.

The Offering will be for Church Ministries and the special offering for GEMS.

Church Family

The service for Marjan W will be this Thursday, May 1 at 1 pm.

Alpha

Last Thursday was our last Alpha session, starting with a wonderful potluck of amazing and delicious contributions. Thank you to everyone who helped make Alpha possible... whether you were praying for the group, cleaning up afterwards or if you made a meal for us, we appreciate you! It really does take a team to run a successful Alpha and we are so grateful for all of you on the team.

Our last session answered the question: What about the Church? in which we learned that the church is not a building, but a group of believers who follow Jesus Christ, worship God, encourage one another, and live out their faith together. It's a great blessing to be part of the Duncan CRC where we can do life together through so many unique and sometimes challenging situations.

If you have any interest in Alpha, find out more at AlphaCanada.org or talk to Sandy Veenstra if you'd like to be part of Alpha in the future. Stay tuned for future Alpha opportunities happening in our church.

From Al Postma, Canadian Executive Director of the CRC

One of my greatest joys in serving within the CRC is witnessing the breadth of our shared ministries. These ministries reflect the diverse ways we believe Jesus is working to renew all things through his death, resurrection, and the power of his Spirit. We equip churches to lead people into deeper worship and experience the Word of God in powerful ways. We have ministries that encourage us to share the good news of Jesus with our neighbours, both locally and globally. We have ministries that embody the gospel in both word and deed, reflecting a redemption that is not only spiritual but embraces the whole world. We have educational institutions that form the whole person, including their minds, to take every thought captive for Christ. And we pursue justice and reconciliation in the wider public sphere.

We do all these things collectively as a denomination, but also within our own congregations and local communities. My hope this Easter is that we will celebrate in ways that reflect our rich theological heritage and help us to pay attention to how we live it out in real, tangible, and redemptive ways.
