Worship Services

Sunday, June 22:

This Sunday we will have Kyle Idleman's video "Every Thought Captive Session 2: The Pattern of Distraction". The Scripture passages are from Luke 10:38-42 & Ephesians 5:13-17. The Offering is for Church Ministries.

Next Sunday, June 29:

The Offering next Sunday is for Church Ministries and the special offering for "Meals on the Ground". Affie and volunteers make a meal at the church once a month and bring it to the the United Church for those in need.

SYNOD of the Christian Reformed Church in North America (CRCNA) is the highest governing body of the denomination. It is an annual assembly that gathers delegates from all CRC classes (regional groups of churches) across the U.S. and Canada to make decisions on matters of doctrine, church order, mission, and ministry.

Synod 2025 reaffirmed the CRCNA's binational identity, embraced a more deliberate digital presence, clarified governance documents, and took moral stances on life issues—all framed by a prayerful "Journey with Jesus." It balanced loyalty to Reformed tradition with openness to innovation and careful ecumenical engagement.

All information for SYNOD 2025 can be found at crcna.org/synod and a more complete overview of the work done will be released in the coming weeks. Please continue to pray for our denomination and church as we follow God's lead.
