Classis Report: October 2025

This past week, delegates from CRC churches from northern BC, Vancouver Island and lower mainland gathered for two days of reports, discussion and prayer.

We began with devotions led by Wilma VanderLeek and Liz Tolkamp from Thrive ministry. Throughout the day, we reflected on the sensitive topic of Medical Assistance in Dying (M.A.I.D.), using a "polarity map" to explore how our faith calls us both to preserve life and the desire to alleviate suffering. We also celebrated milestones, like the 10-year anniversary of Vancouver Dream Church, and welcomed updates from ministries including Resonate, World Renew, and Safe Church.

This year costs were diminished due to delegates being billeted rather than staying in a hotel. Sandy and Pastor Dan were hosted by Len and Yolande Noort.

Wednesday offered time for sharing as pastors and delegates prayed for one another's "roses and thorns", those things that we are celebrating as well as areas of prayer. We rejoiced with Canaan Ee, who successfully completed his Commissioned Pastor exam and was welcomed into ministry at Immanuel CRC (Richmond). A commissioned pastor position was approved for Christ Community Church in Nanaimo, with the hope that Jonathen Christie will fill that position.

Pastor Dan chaired an overture committee that addressed the need for our Classis to be intimately involved with equipping our Classis to plant churches as well as grow existing ministries. Their recommendations were approved. We also heard encouraging reports from denominational ministries, campus and seafarer missions, and were reminded that the Christian Reformed Church is active in areas all over the world.

We closed our sessions with prayer and gratitude for fellowship and for the continued faithfulness of the CRC.
